

Self-Employment Assistance

Sea to Valley Startups

Promoting small business ownership and self-employment to create jobs, grow the economy and improve labour outcomes, across the Barossa Valley, Clare Valley, Yorke Peninsula, and the Mid North in South Australia.

What is Self-Employment Assistance?

Self-Employment Assistance can help you turn your business idea or existing small business into a viable business. The program allows you to choose the level of support that meets your needs and the needs of your small business..

How Self-Employment Assistance can help

Self-Employment Assistance can help you with your business idea or existing business through its flexible services including:

- Exploring Self-Employment Workshops
- Business Plan Development
- free accredited Small Business Training
- Business Advice Sessions
- Business Health Checks
- Small Business Coaching.

You may also be eligible for financial support while you start and run your business as part of Small Business Coaching.

Eligibility

To be eligible you must:

- be at least 15 years of age (a person must be 18 years of age to access Small Business Coaching)
- not already be studying or employed for more than 25 hours per week
- not be prohibited by law from working in Australia
- not be an overseas visitor on a working holiday visa or an overseas student studying in Australia
- not be an undischarged bankrupt.

Some services available through Self-Employment Assistance will also have additional eligibility criteria. For example, to access Small Business Coaching you must have an eligible business idea or existing business. This means your business idea or existing business must:

- be either a new business or a micro-business (up to 4 employees) at risk of not operating commercially
- be assessed as viable by your Self-Employment Assistance provider
- have an independent business structure
- be lawful and capable of withstanding public scrutiny
- be established, located, and operated solely within Australia
- be structured so you will maintain a controlling interest over the business through your time accessing the Services.

Sea to Valley Startups

Aiming for outcomes of:

- Commercially viable and successful small businesses
- Creating work and earn an income
- Overcoming barriers
- Running a viable small business
- Starting a business
- Sustainable self-employment

Helping people to start successful businesses. This new, flexible self-employment program will allow Australians to access tailored support to start and run viable small businesses.

Working with unemployed people and job seekers; those who are under-employed and seeking a side hustle; owners of existing micro-businesses; Culturally and Linguistically Diverse people, refugees, people with disability, and Indigenous Australians.

The program is open to people who are unemployed, under-employed and owners of existing micro-businesses (with up to 4 employees) who need support for the business to be commercially viable.
